

[24/06/06][18:44:41] -

Title: Journal

Author: Gerald the artist

An interesting man visited us today, a Filberto of Britain. His clothes were tattered and torn, but he insists he just came from some very dangerous mining area.

He had a notebook written by Gregory Ironhand, and asked us to draw diagrams from his chapter on tuning forks. We were able to do so within several hours. He thanked us profusely, and paid us with gold before leaving.